

Chapter 7 – The Four Characteristics of Scripture: (3) Necessity

Multiple Choice

1. The _____ of Scripture means that the Bible is necessary for knowing God's will.
 - A. Inerrancy
 - B. Clarity
 - C. Perspicuity
 - D. None of the above
2. _____ is knowledge of God's existence or moral law that comes through creation.
 - A. Special revelation
 - B. General revelation
 - C. Certain knowledge
 - D. General knowledge
3. _____ is the term for God's words addressed to specific people.
 - A. Special revelation
 - B. General revelation
 - C. Prophecy
 - D. Illumination
4. The Bible is necessary for _____ of God's will.
 - A. Special revelation
 - B. General revelation
 - C. Certain knowledge
 - D. General knowledge
5. Paul says in Romans 1 that unbelievers without Scripture can still know something about:
 - A. God's character
 - B. God's moral laws
 - C. God's existence
 - D. All of the above
6. The view that all people who ever lived will be saved:
 - A. Universalism
 - B. Religious pluralism
 - C. Inclusivism
 - D. Annihilationism
7. The view that all sincere religious people from all religions will be saved:
 - A. Universalism
 - B. Religious pluralism
 - C. Inclusivism
 - D. Annihilationism

8. The view that people can only be saved through the redeeming work of Christ, but all people who ever lived will be saved and will find out after death that they were saved by Christ's work:
- A. Universalism
 - B. Religious pluralism
 - C. Inclusivism
 - D. Annihilationism
9. The view that people who have not believed in Christ will not be saved, but they will simply cease to exist:
- A. Universalism
 - B. Religious pluralism
 - C. Inclusivism
 - D. Annihilationism
10. _____ is the view that after unbelievers die, they will be given another opportunity (or a first opportunity) to trust in Christ.
- A. Qualified exclusivism
 - B. Second-chance theology
 - C. Postmortem evangelism
 - D. Annihilationism

True/False

- 11. The Bible is not necessary for knowledge of the gospel.
- 12. The Bible is not necessary for growth in the Christian life.
- 13. We cannot gain certainty about God's will without the Bible.
- 14. Paul says that all persons have evidence in creation that God exists, but they cannot know about God's moral laws without the Bible.
- 15. Special revelation is only the words of Scripture.
- 16. The text advocates the exclusivist viewpoint.
- 17. It is appropriate for us to be more certain about the truths we read in Scripture than the truths we glean from scientific inquiry.
- 18. The fact that all people know something of God's moral laws makes it more difficult to establish just societies.
- 19. The Bible never views human speculation alone as a sufficient basis on which to rest saving faith.
- 20. Jesus teaches that our spiritual life is maintained by daily nourishment with the Word of God.